

The Daily Courant.

Thursday, August 23. 1722.

THE following Address of the Borough of Leicester in Common Council assembled, having been transmitted to the Right Honourable the Lord Carteret one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been presented to His Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Burgesses, of the Borough of Leicester, in Common Council assembled.

WE humbly approach your Royal Throne with the deepest Sense of our Duty and Allegiance to your sacred Majesty, and with the utmost Detestation and Abhorrence of all traitorous Purposes and wicked Designs of your disloyal Subjects both at Home and Abroad.

We doubt not but the same divine Providence concurring with your Majesty's vigilant Care and the Industry and Sagacity of your faithful Ministry, (which has so often defeated the desperate Attempts of your implacable Enemies in favour of a Popish Pretender) will continue to protect and preserve your Majesty's Person; the established Religion, the Property, Peace and Welfare of these Kingdoms depending on your sacred Life, and on the Succession of your Illustrious Family to the Throne.

As our untainted Loyalty and Affection to your Majesty's Person and Government has appeared in all our Actions, and will stand the severest Test, so nothing shall discourage us from persisting in our Duty, and exerting our utmost Endeavours to discover and bring to Justice all those wicked Persons who shall be found disturbing your Majesty's Government and the publick Peace.

None but Men of profligate Minds and Fortunes can ever engage in Attempts against so Gracious a Prince; none who consider the Clemency and Goodness of your Majesty, so eminently conspicuous in the Government of your Foreign Dominions before your happy Accession to the Crown of Great Britain, and since that glorious Day shining in so full Lustre throughout these your Realms, but must gratefully acknowledge themselves under the highest Obligations of Duty and Obedience.

May you, Dread Sovereign, Reign with full Empire (as you do in ours) in the Hearts and Affections of all your Subjects, the firmest Establishment of your Throne; and after fullness of Days and Tranquillity here, be translated to a more Glorious Diadem in the highest Heavens.

Sallee, June 24. Our Corsairs have taken and brought hither a Portuguese Ship with British Colours and 40 Men, who are already sold for Slaves: This Ship was bound for Mazagan a Fortrefs belonging to the Portuguese, situated in the Province of Duccala in the Kingdom of Morocco; her lading consisted of Wine, Oyl, and other Provisions for the Use of that Garrison.

Moscow, July 27. M. Westphalen, the Danish Envoy, arrived here some Days ago. The Imperial Minister Count Kinski sets out from hence to Day or To-morrow on his Return to Vienna, by Way of Petersbourg; in whose Absence M. Hochholster, Secretary to the Embassy, is to have the Care of the Imperial Affairs at this Court. It is said, that the Cham of the Calmuck Tartars has had Audience of the Czar at Jaratoff, near the Volga, and made him a Present of Cattle. A Quantity of Provisions for six Months is to be sent from hence for Astracan.

Turin, Aug. 5. The 29th past, the King and the Prince of Piedmont arrived here from Rivoli; the Prince returned thither the next Day, but the King stayed here till the 31st. It is reported, that the Horse and Dragoon Regiments are shortly to form a Camp at Vignon. The King has actually in Pay 22000 Men, and 'tis said that his Majesty's Finances are in such good Order, that all his Debts will be paid this Year. The King has caused to be printed at his own Expence, a Collection of all the Laws of this Country, entituled the Historian Code.

Warsaw, Aug. 8. Last Sunday after Divine Service, the King admitted the Tribunal Deputies to Audience; and the Great Crown Chancellor made Answer on the Part of his Majesty to the Matters they had to deliver. It was indeed expected that the King would that Day have disposed of the vacant Benefices, but that Business is now put off to the Opening of the Grand Diet. The Funeral Obsequies of the late Primate have been performed here with much Solemnity, and his Body is laid in the Bernardine Convent. Letters from Posen say, the Count de Schwerin is arrived there from Berlin, and that he will shortly come hither, to be present at the General Diet, in Quality of the King of Prussia's Ambassador.

Bern, Aug. 10. It is reported here with general Satisfaction, that the King of France has promoted M. du Villars, a Native of this Canton, to the Rank of Lieutenant General; and given the Swiss Regiment of Castellas to M. Beiten, although both those Gentlemen are Protestants. The Recruiting Service for the King of Spain is carried on with great Diligence in the Popish Cantons. The Baron de Grouth, Imperial Minister at Coire, and the Governour of Milan, are greatly dissatisfied with the Grisons, because they have refused to let 400 new rais'd Men march through their Country for the Milanese.

Danzick, Aug. 13. The Duke of Mecklenbourg is still here. Upon repeated Assurances from several Masters of Ships, that the Russian Squadron at Cronstot has joined that at Revel, and that both of them are coasting off of Livonia, our Magistrates have ordered the Garrison at Fort Weichselmund, situated on the Mouth of that Branch of the Weyssel which runs by this City, to be double mann'd.

Vienna, Aug. 15. It having been proposed to the Hungarians, that the Protestants living at present in that Kingdom shall be permitted to enjoy the free Exercise of their Religion, but that after their decease their Children should be christned Roman-Catholicks; the Protestants have drawn up a Memorial on that Head and sent it to this Court; upon which Occasion a Cabinet Council was held the 13th Instant, and there concluded, that considering the publick Affairs at this present juncture are pretty much unsettled, this Point should not be insisted upon; and to that end fresh Instructions

Instructions, are sent to the Imperial Ministers at Presbourg. It is rumoured, that this Court being sensible that the Protestant Powers have not taken the late Imperial Decree in such good Part as was expected, and that the Evangelical Body is again concealing, being reduced thereto by Necessity, another humble Remonstrance to the Emperor, which if it should be attended like all the former, with no good Success, they might be driven to take other Methods for Redress; this Court has therefore sent Orders to their new Ambassador at a certain Court, to give Assurances once for all, that his Imperial Majesty's Intentions are to procure equitable Redress to his Protestant Subjects in case the Grounds of their Complaints were but examined by an Imperial Commission. Also the Cardinal de Saxe-Zeitz, who is to go back shortly to Ratisbon, is enjoined to make the like Declaration to the Protestant Ministers there. It is said, that the Emperor has ordered, that his late Envoy at Sweden, Count Freytag, shall make proper Acknowledgements concerning his Conduct complained of by the Swedish Court. A fine Opera is getting ready against the Celebration of the Emperor's Birth-Day. The Elector of Bavaria and the Prince his Sons are expected here shortly, also the Elector of Cologne, and great Preparations are making here for their Reception. The Confirmation of the Electoral Prince's Marriage remains fixt to the Middle of next Month; it is to be solemnized at the Favorite, and with the same Ceremonial as was observed at the Wedding of the Electoral Prince of Saxony.
